

Dress Code 2024-2025

2 Year-Old Class

Dancers should wear Capezio Ballet Pink tights, light pink leotards, and canvas ballet pink ballet shoes; a pink ballet skirt is optional.

PK Groove

Dancers should wear moveable clothing. No shoes are required.

Creative Movement

Dancers should wear Capezio Ballet Pink tights, light pink leotards, canvas ballet pink ballet shoes, and shiny, black tap shoes with velcro (see tap section); a pink ballet skirt is optional. Hair should be neatly pulled back in a ballet bun.

Jazz/Leaps & Turns

Dancers should wear tight-fitting clothing with hair neatly pulled back. Dancers in 5/6 Jazz should wear nude jazz shoes (pictured right). Dancers in BEG-ADV Jazz may wear nude jazz shoes, pirouette shoes, or foot undies for turning, or may go barefoot.

Dancers should not wear socks.

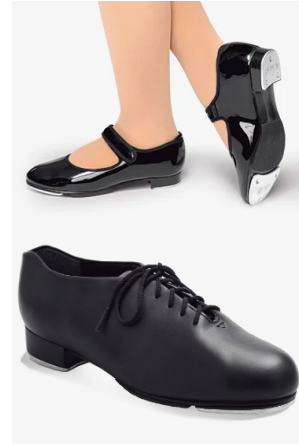

Hip-Hop

Dancers should wear loose-fitting clothing (sweatpants, t-shirts, leggings, sweatshirts) and tennis shoes.

Tap

Dancers wear tight-fitting clothing and black tap shoes with hair neatly pulled back in a bun or ponytail.

- 3-6 Year-Olds - Shiny, Black, Mary-Jane Tap Shoes with velcro (pictured on top)
- Beginner-Advanced - Matte, Black Tap Shoes (pictured on bottom)

Ballet

BEG-ADV Dancers should wear Capzio Ballet Pink tights, Capezio Canvas Ballet Pink ballet shoes, and the appropriate color leotard for their level; 2-6-years-old should wear canvas ballet pink ballet shoes, Capezio Ballet Pink tights, and the appropriate color leotard for their level. A matching color ballet skirt is optional but shorts may not be worn. Hair should be neatly pulled back in a ballet bun without wispies or long bangs.

- 2-4 Year-Olds – Light Pink Leotard
- 5-6 Year-Olds – Light Purple Leotard
- Beginner – Baby Blue Leotard
- Intermediate – Navy Blue Leotard
- Advanced – Black Leotard

Contemporary

Dancers should wear tight-fitting clothing with hair neatly pulled back. Dancers may wear pirouette shoes or foot undies for turning, but may go barefoot. Dancers should not wear socks.

Musical Theatre

Dancers should wear tight-fitting clothing with hair neatly pulled back. Dancers may wear skin-toned jazz shoes, pedini shoes, or character shoes. Character shoes may be required for the Spring Show; the specific style and color will be announced after Christmas Break if applicable.
